

Important School Opening Information

- First day of school for Clinton Public Schools is Tuesday, September 8, 2020
  - Cohort A (last names A-K) - In Session on Tuesday and Wednesday
  - Cohort B (last names L-Z) - In Session on Thursday and Friday

- Chromebook distribution information will be provided next week for students who will not be in-person on the first day of school

- Class placements and student schedules will be released early next week with a goal of Monday, August 31st

- Each school has resumed sending their Weekly Blast. Please check your email every Friday for important school information and updates

- A decision regarding Interscholastic Sports is pending CIAC-DPH alignment of decisions. The Athletic Department will provide updates as soon as they are available.

- Reminder to provide required updated physicals and other health-related information to your school offices. Any questions should be referred to School Nurse Supervisor Donna Frechette at dfrechette@clintonpublic.net

- CPS Reopening website contains up-to-date information for your reference

Temporary Remote Learning

Families who have indicated this option will be receiving more information regarding student schedules, courses, and teacher assignments from school staff next week. See the attachment for additional information regarding the plan for each school.